Ten Dollars Reward

RAN AWAY from the subscriber who resides in the town of Alexandria, on the 23d instant, a negro man named ISAAC, formerly the property of Mr. Ferdinand Marsteller—by trade a baker, stout made, supposed to be about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, 35 years old, hard of hearing, has lost two of his fore teeth—had on a roundabout jacket and trousers of home-made grey twilled cloth, and a fox-skin cap. It is probable he may change his clothing as he has a blue coat and trousers at his wife's. Whoever will apprehend the said slave and deliver him to me or secure him in any jail so that I get him, shall receive Ten Dollars reward. His wife belongs to Miss Fowler, near Pohick church—he probably may be about some of the fishing landings. All persons are forbid harboring, employing or carrying him off, at their peril.—If he is taken within twenty miles, whoever delivers him to me shall receive Ten Dollars, and if further all reasonable charges paid.
